

FIRST PROGRESS REPORT

A PROGRAMME FOR A PARTNERSHIP GOVERNMENT
2016 - 2021

December 2016

Introduction

The Programme for a Partnership Government was published on 11 May with the aim of tackling the most pressing challenges Ireland faces so as to build a strong economy and to deliver a fair society. It sets out a new and collaborative approach to doing business, one which is inclusive of partners in Government, the Oireachtas and wider society.

Work on the implementation of the Programme for Government is ongoing across all Departments and this progress report sets out the progress made to date including delivery on the 100 Day Actions and measures recently announced under Budget 2017. The Finance Bill 2016, which includes Budget announcements, is currently before the Houses of the Oireachtas.

The Government will continue to deliver on its ambitious programme of work which has one simple objective at its core, to make people's lives better in every part of Ireland.

This progress report, which will be laid before the Oireachtas, is in addition to the Programme for Government Annual Report to be published in May following the Government's first year in office.

Reforming how the Government and the Dáil conduct business

- An All-Party Oireachtas Sub-Committee on Dáil Reform issued a Report to the Dáil in May 2016 setting out a programme of reform for how the current Dáil will operate. A number of their recommendations have already been introduced with others due to be introduced over the next number of months
